President's Message

Summer is here! I love this time of year...it makes me think of warm weather, softball (I play on 3 teams), relaxing by the pool, and of course camp!

As always, there are opportunities to visit camp this summer, such as History Day on July 7th (for more information, read further in this newsletter).

I always look forward to Circle reunion in the fall and this year is no different! The number of attendees has been over 200 for the past few years. I would love to see this number continue to climb. To do that, we need to build our database of Circle members and friends. If you know someone who is in Circle or worked at camp in the past, tell them about reunion and direct them to the webpage and the email listserv. Our email list has almost 800 members. Can we get that list to 1000? Or even more?

The Circle board is working on ways to increase our outreach and visibility. We already have a Facebook page, but we are also looking into creating a Twitter and a LinkedIn account. So look out for those! We will also be starting a monthly email blast using our email listserv. Our goal is to keep everyone better informed of Circle social events, projects, etc.

I hope to see all of you at Circle reunion in September, and maybe up on the mountain during the summer!

Rachel Sanderoff
President, Camp Louise Circle

Circle Garden Project, Year 3

On June 2, the third annual Circle garden project took place up at camp. Lisa Blatt, Jane Rice, Betsy Sterling, Lisa Yarmis, and special helper Drew McQuiston Starrett all participated in this year's event. New to the garden this year are raised beds that allow for optimal growth as well as an organized and aesthetically pleasing appearance.

From strawberries and blueberries, to an assortment of peppers, various other vegetables, lettuce, herbs, and sunflowers, this year's garden looks like it will be the most successful garden yet. The garden is truly an asset to camp's nature department and to camp experience for the children as a whole. The garden would not be possible if it weren't for the hard work of the Circle members and special guest. We look forward to giving back to camp next spring and continuing the project for its 4th consecutive year!

Circle Board Nominations

Are you looking to get more involved in Circle or do you know of someone who would be? Do you have a special skills set that would benefit Circle? Great news! Nominations are now being accepted for the Circle board. Positions will be filled during election at the town hall meeting at Circle reunion in September.

Responsibilities include attendance at at least 2 of the 3 Circle board annual meetings and commitment to a planning committee for Circle. Up to 7 positions will be available, and nominations close on September 14. Each term is a 3-year commitment.

If you are interested in running, you would like to nominate someone else, or have any questions, please e-mail Lisa Blatt at lisab@camploisecircle.org.

Lisa Blatt
Nominations chair

New Circle Board Members

We are pleased to welcome the new Circle board members who have been elected for a 3-year term. Each of them has unique skills and experiences to add to the group. Jan Abraham, Ali Brodsky, Lauren Winiker Kaplan, Ayme Smith Lederman, Jen Falik Rains, and Drazia Rubinstein are the new additions to the board. In addition, Shira Kahan and Lisa Yarmis have been elected for their second terms.

Circle board is a great way to be able to give back to Circle and camp while taking on the responsibility of planning and organizing. It is open to all Circle members both new and old. Elections take place every Circle reunion at the town hall meeting. If you are interested in running for the board, or nominating someone else, please let me know at lisab@camploisecircle.org. Nominations are accepted until 2 weeks prior to Circle reunion.

Contributions to Circle

Making a contribution to Circle? Contributions can be made for any purpose – to support general operations, to support the reunion scholarship fund, or anything else you'd like Circle to support at camp! Remember to save your cancelled check or bank statement for tax purposes. If you need additional documentation for tax purposes or have any other questions relating to contributions, please contact Circle treasurer Andie Snyder at andies@camploisecircle.org. All checks should be made payable to "Camp Louise Circle."

Fundraising for Camp's 90th Celebrating our Birthdays at Camp

Stand up, stand up, stand up and show us your face – Camp Louise is turning 90 this year! Help Circle celebrate this milestone in camp's history by considering a donation in honor of the number of birthdays you spent at camp. If every Circle member donated just $1 in honor of each summer they spent at camp, think of how much we could give back to camp for the next 90 years!

We will be collecting "Celebrating our Birthdays at Camp" donations through the end of this year's Circle reunion, September 28-30. Making a contribution is easy – either send a check made out to Camp Louise Circle to Andie Snyder, Circle treasurer, 1447 Barton Drive Fort Washington, PA 19034.

Circle Contributions

We would like to acknowledge the following contributions to Circle for the year 2011.

General contributions

Debbie Apple, Wendy Fredericks, Wendy Gill, Paula Graham (in memory of Mark Abrams,) Serene Israel, Karen Levin, Mary Maslow, Amy Ross (in honor of Sarah Sherman's birthday), Drazia Rubenstein, Sharon Selko, Ricci Silberman, Andie Snyder, Audrey Tell, Erin Weinblatt, Lisa Yarmis (in honor of Sue Sterling making Circle.)

Reunion scholarship fund

Alicia & Neil Berlin, Joan Bornstein, Becky Gutin (in honor of Elissa Sachs-Kohen's birthday,) Ellen Mae Kaye, Stephanie Klein, Lawrence Kravitz, Mickie McKenna, Amy Corbman Moncarz, Reesa Pearlman, Amy Rollins, Drazia Rubenstein (in honor of her summer 2011 co-workers), Missy & Elissa Sachs-Kohen, Lisa Yarmis, Robin Zenick and anonymous.

Camper scholarship fund

Marji Arnheim, Beverly Goldstein Legum (in memory of Ethel Lowenthal), Marilyn Schneider Kellam, Ruth Legum.

Every effort has been made to ensure the completeness of this list. We apologize if any contributor has been left off – you can be sure that every dollar helps!

- Andie Snyder

Note and Mitzvah Card Sales

The Circle would like to acknowledge the following contributions through the purchase of mitzvah and note cards. Thank you all!

Freecycle Camp Louise-style

At the 2012 Circle reunion we will be starting a Freecycle store for Camp Louise gear only. It's not too early to look through your old T-shirts and sweatshirts, etc., and put them aside to donate.

Here's how it works. You bring to reunion stuff you no longer want, fit into, etc., and donate it when you pick up your badge. You look through other people's donations and take what you want. For free. That's it. My only request is that the clothes be clean.

You may also donate coffee mugs or anything with Camp Louise on it.

Camp Update

I am sitting in my office at camp, looking out at the White House lawn. It is a gorgeous day here in 21719. The sun is shining, the birds are chirping, but it is eerily quiet. Our administrative team is here getting ready for the arrival of staff and then for the arrival of 450+ campers in just a week.

This year marks Camp Louise's 90th anniversary. Just take a minute to think about the thousands of campers and staff who have come in and out of these gates and have been positively impacted by their time spent in Cascade, Maryland. I am sure that the people who were at camp decades ago have the same feelings about Louise and the friendships made here that our current staff and campers are about to experience during this summer of 2012.

We are looking forward to another wonderful summer in the mountains – helping kids and staff grow, learn, gain independence, and unplug from the technology and busy lives at home.

Thank you for all you do to continuously support camp! We could not do it without you! And on that note....another BIG thank you!

Attention! Attention! The Camp Louise dining hall is now air-conditioned. This is a welcome relief for the hot summer days. It will give the kids a break from the heat and a chance to relax and enjoy their meals in a cool and comfortable setting. With the added noise from the inside and outside air conditioning units, Circle has very graciously donated a new sound system for the dining hall. On behalf of all of our campers and staff, I wanted to thank Circle for this incredibly generous donation.

Alicia Berlin
Camp director

Coming up in 2012

Circle gives back to camp with the purchase of a state-of-the-art sound system for the newly air-conditioned dining hall in honor of camp's 90th birthday!

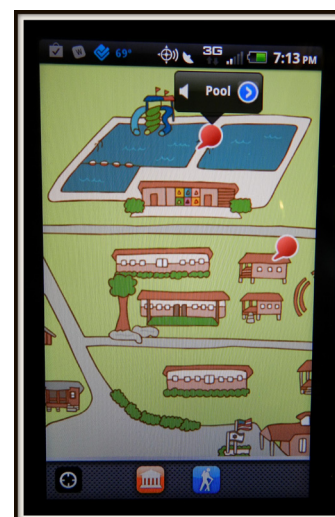

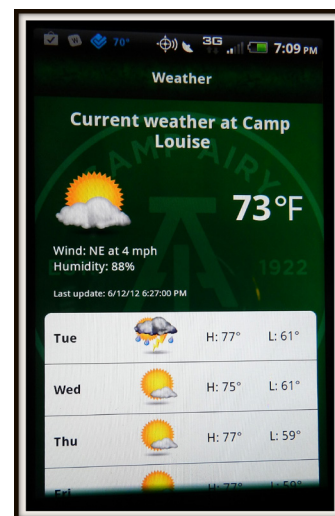

Pool staff office needs fridge

Do you have a mini-fridge that you want to get rid of? If you do, camp's pool staff office would love to take it off your hands. If you have one to donate, please contact pool director Leslie Salters at 410-245-8716. The fridge could be dropped off at the camp office in Baltimore or possibly at camp.

Camp Louise Mobile App.

Do you have a smart phone? You can now download the free app and visit camp right at home on your phone. It is pretty cool. You can check out the weather, take a camp tour with descriptions of each area, look at photos and videos.

Births

Amy Weinberg (Circle 1995) gave birth to future Louise camper, Eliana Sidney Villwock on March 8, 2012. Eliana made her appearance at 4:19 a.m. at 5 lbs. 8 oz. Amy grew up in Baltimore but is now living in Colorado. Amy worked in the nature department when she was at Louise.

Moms Reesa Pearlman (Circle 1998) and Julie Soss announce, with great joy, the birth of their daughter, Adele Stacy Pearlman-Soss on March 15, 2012. Reesa was a camper and staff member at Louise for many years. The family lives in Catonsville, Md.

Ali Brown Rustige (Circle 1997) of Reigate, Surrey, UK, wrote to tell us that she is now married and on April 16, she gave birth to a little boy called William Joseph Rustige, to be known as Will. He weighed 7 lbs. 11 oz. and is doing really well.

Ali still regularly sees her British camp friends Swuz Tuhrim, Christal Dalley, Kate Wingfield, Rachel Steward and Sarah Williams.

Ali was at Camp Louise 1994-1998 and 2001 and was known as Ali Brown.

Congratulations

Keri Baxter Hoffmann (Circle 1997) of Pittsburgh, Pa. recently graduated with a master's of science in clinical embryology and andrology from Eastern Virginia Medical School. Keri was in the music department at Louise.

Cobi Edelson (Circle 2001) of Atlanta, Ga. reports that she is engaged to her boyfriend of 2 years, Bennie Cohen. They are planning an August wedding. Cobi was in the dance department when she worked at Camp Louise.

Cobi says: "I'm so excited about getting married to Bennie Cohen this summer in Miami. After the ceremony and a cocktail reception, we're going on a celebratory weekend cruise with a number of our guests. Looking forward to seeing everyone at reunion!"

Rachel Sanderoff (Circle 2000) of Rockville, Md. wrote to say that she got engaged to Ryan Bechtel in January. They are getting married in October. Rachel reports: "We have been together for over 2 years. We are very excited, not only for our wedding, but our 5-1/2 week honeymoon including a 3 week cruise from Hawaii to Australia and a viewing of a total solar eclipse only visible in the South Pacific." Rachel worked in the athletics department at camp as well as in programming.

Elaine (Levin) Silverstein (Circle 1987) celebrated her 50th wedding anniversary with husband Jerry Silverstein on April 19. Elaine writes: "Living at Coral Lakes for the past 9 years in Boynton Beach, Fla. Love the weather here and the terrific busy lifestyle."

Elaine was a camper from 1949 through 1956. She was a unit leader from 1977 through 1985. Elaine and Jerry's daughter, Vicki Silverstein Pellicano, was also a camper and counselor at Louise. Vicki wrote to tell us that her whole family went on a cruise aboard the Ruby Princess to celebrate her parents' impressive milestone.

Passings

Jeri Packman, 88, a dance instructor who taught creative movement to Philadelphia school children and teachers for more than 60 years and was a leader in the Philadelphia Dance Company (Philadanco) and the Philadelphia Dance Alliance, died of heart failure at her home in Center City, Pa. in July 2008. Jeri made Circle in 1941.

Mrs. Packman, born Gertrude Coplin, celebrated her 88th birthday with family members the night she passed away. After they left, she died. "My mother had a flair for the dramatic," daughter Hedra Packman said. She was strong-willed and left this world when she was ready."

Growing up in West Philadelphia the little girl with the golden curls learned folk and modern dance from her mother and older women in her neighborhood. In elementary school, her teacher encouraged the left-handed youngster to write with her right hand. She refused. So the teacher told her to dance in the gym during cursive writing exercises. "My mother never learned to write cursive, son Ira said, "but she learned to dance, and dance she did."

After graduating from West Philadelphia High School, Mrs. Packman earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1941 from Temple University. "I had no intention of becoming a teacher, but the only scholarship I got was in education, and I needed

that scholarship," she said in a 1993 Inquirer article. "If I had my druthers, I would have gone to New York and studied with Martha Graham."

Instead she began teaching elementary school in 1941, when there was no dance education in public schools. She married Ralph Packman in 1942 and raised two children in Northwest Philadelphia. She built dancing into her curriculum and taught creative movement to first and second graders. "It was not enough for kids to improvise," Mrs. Packman said in 1993. "I wanted them to develop a love of dance, and for that they had to learn basic concepts."

Mrs. Packman saw dance in early-childhood education not as a technical skill but as a social activity. "In the arts, you share yourself. You show how to feel," she said, "and you learn that it's good for people to express their emotions."

In the mid-1940s, Mrs. Packman recognized a great talent in first grader Ronne Arnold. While helping launch his career as a professional dancer, she began to work with one of the pioneers of modern dance, Nadia Chilkovsky Nahumck, who founded the Philadelphia Dance Academy and became a lifelong friend. "Jeri was my life's inspiration, love and drive," Arnold wrote in an e-mail from Australia.

In the 1950s and '60s, Arnold toured worldwide in the role of Luis, a member of the Sharks gang in West Side Story, before moving to Australia to teach dance. "I am dedicating my next dance work, Some Other Place, for my students at Wesley College of the Arts [Australia] in memory of Jeri," he said.

In 1965, the Philadelphia School District asked Mrs. Packman to join the newly created Head Start program. She later became a demonstration teacher for 2- and 3-year-olds in Get Set, and, until she retired from the district in 1981, she taught teachers how to teach dance in early-childhood programs.

Mrs. Packman also taught dance at the Allens Lane Art Center from 1953-75, and was director of the extension division of the Philadelphia Dance Academy from 1956-69. When it became the dance division of the Philadelphia College of the Performing Arts, she taught students who were studying to be teachers how to integrate creative dance in education

Mrs. Packman began teaching dance at the Community College of Philadelphia in 1982, a position she held until shortly before she died.

"Jeri's knowledge of dance was incredible," said Joan Myers Brown, founder of Philadanco. "She actually had three careers and never retired from teaching and dancing. She was on the Philadanco board of directors until her death. She will be terribly missed."

Mrs. Packman hardly ever stopped moving. She was the first and last one dancing at weddings, galas and parties. "Nana Jeri swam miles each day on vacation in Beach Haven," granddaughter Nora Peterman said. "We celebrated her 80th birthday at the Tropicana, and she got us on stage to dance in a Grease contest. And she won."

Mrs. Packman was cochairman of dance at the Philadelphia Art Alliance and an adviser for the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts. She was on the board of the Please Touch Museum and Temple's dance-certification project, funded by the William Penn Foundation.

In 2004, Mrs. Packman received the Terri Lynne Lokoff Child Care Foundation Child Care Advocate Award and, in 2006, was honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award by the Pennsylvania Child Care Association.

In addition to her daughter, son and granddaughter, Mrs. Packman is survived by five additional grandchildren and a sister. Her husband died in 1997.

(Parts of this obituary were taken from an article in the Philadelphia Enquirer.)

Harriet "Rusty" Land Cohn (Circle 1948) beloved wife of the late Isador "Buddy" Cohn (Circle 1984), passed away on October 16, 2011 in Baltimore. Harriet and Buddy were both longtime employees of Camp Louise.

Harriet was a camper, counselor, unit leader, assistant director, and served on the Camp Louise Circle board. Buddy worked as a driver and in other positions when he visited Harriet at camp. Although Buddy and Harriet did not meet at camp, Buddy proposed to Harriet at Camp Louise.

Harriet was at camp from 1935-50, and again in the '70s. She worked in arts & crafts before moving to camp administration.

Harriet was a talented artist, a dog lover, a wonderful cook and held three college degrees. In later life, she had her own very successful business, training people to run their own day care centers. Harriet was a mentor to many people and she adored her two granddaughters Amanda Cohn (Circle 2004) and Dana Cohn (Circle 2006), both of Owings Mills, Md.

Harriet was the devoted mother of A. Stuart Cohn, Martin Cohn and the late David Cohn, beloved mother-in-law of Margie Zemlak Cohn and the late Bernice Cohn, loving sister of the late Norman Land. Harriet is survived by her sister-in-law and many nieces and nephews. Contributions may be sent to Camp Louise Circle, c/o Camp Louise, 5750 Park Heights Ave., Suite 306, Baltimore, Md., 21215. Condolences may be sent to 1 Strongwood Rd., Owings Mills, MD 21117.

On February 18, 2012, Dr. Arnold Michael (Circle 1993) passed away. He was the beloved husband of the late Phrona Michael (nee Samburg), beloved father of Jay Michael, Ann (Ellis) Rosenberg, Janet (Alan) Abramowitz, Barbara (Gary) Silverman, Victoria Michael and the late Richard Michael, devoted brother of Dr. Jerrold Michael and the late Dr. Morris Michael, Hilda Finck and Evelyn Rottman. Also survived by many grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Contributions in his memory may be sent to the charity of your choice. Dr. Michael was from Baltimore, Md, and was a longtime doctor at Louise.

This & That

Judi Rosenberg Edwards of sunny Scottsdale, Ariz. wrote to tell us." I made Circle in 1993 after working 5 summers at Louise in arts & crafts. I have worked at Camp Airy, also in arts & crafts, since 1999, and will be there again this summer.

"Our daughter, Courtney, who also attended Camp Louise for those 5 summers, will be giving birth to our first granddaughter, G-d willing, in early July. We are eagerly awaiting Maya's safe and healthy arrival. Although I will not win a grandmother of the year award, I will then be the Fun FactAiry department head (while Marilyn Riffkin goes to Israel for her grandson's Bar Mitzvah) for the second half of summer 2012. Hopefully, I will have a few spare moments to Skype so I can keep on top of our granddaughter's early weeks from across the country!"

Michelle Kitt (Circle 1995) of Richmond, Va. wrote to share this: "I completed my first half-Ironman triathlon (1.2 mile swim, 56 mile bike, 13.1 run) in May and am looking forward to the Skipjack race at the Chesapeake Endurance festival in September (1.2 mile swim, 64 mile bike, 10 mile run). I train with a team in Richmond, Va. called TriGirls – just like camp minus the arts & crafts and folk dance.

I was promoted this year to director of instructional design at K12, Inc. in Herndon, Va. K12, Inc. produces award-winning curriculum for online elementary, middle, and high schools. I'm also a reviewer for Common Sense Media, a non-profit organization that reviews and rates children's media (books, Web sites, apps, games, movies, TV, etc.) for parents and offers advice and tips. In my "spare time" I volunteer for the Positive Vibe Foundation which trains people with disabilities to work in food service through the Positive Vibe Cafe in Richmond. I'm a job coach and serve on their Training Council."

Michelle worked in the drama department when she was at camp. She was also a unit leader.

Barbara (Kayten) Shuman (known at camp as "campfire Kayten") wrote to inform us "I have lived in the Pittsburgh area since 1969. Still married to Larry Shuman (43 years), two adult children – one living in Bali, Indonesia, the other married with 4-year-old daughter, living in Doylestown, Pa. Just nominated to be the next president of the Pittsburgh Agency for Jewish Learning for the next two years, and am serving as chair of my synagogue's spirituality center. We recently took our granddaughter and her parents to Disney World where we met Mickey, Minnie, Donald, Goofy and more princesses than I knew existed – a very magical visit!"

Barbara is from Baltimore, Md. and made Circle in 1965. When

she worked at camp, she was in the drama department and she edited the Louise Lighthouse one year.

Sheila Cohen Hayes (Circle 1993) of East Granby, Ct. wrote to say that her son Bryan, who will be graduating high school in June and off to college in the fall, attained his Eagle Scout award in May – a big achievement that only 4% of scouts are awarded. He managed a project where volunteers helped to rebuild a dugout in one of the parks in town. Sheila worked in arts & crafts when she was at camp.

Lawrence Kravitz (Circle 1998) of Aberdeen, Md. wrote with this update: “I traveled to the Marquesas Islands of French Polynesia in December and the fabled Silk Road in March-April. The Silk Road tour included Turkey, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, China, and Kyrgyzstan. I enjoy the crafts, particularly the artisan woven silk and wool fabrics and rugs and Kyrgyz wool felt. Found ourselves respected where scarce Americans generally travel. There are useful phrase books. I was surprised to meet and greet the ethnic diversity of northwestern China. Always interesting to discover and remind myself how the other 95% of the world's persons live.”

Camp Louise License Plates

We are almost there! We need a minimum of 25 cars to order Camp Louise organizational license plates. License plates are available for almost any Maryland-registered vehicle (sorry, no motorcycles!). These plates are NOT vanity plates and do NOT require additional renewal costs (the fee is the same as you pay for your plates now). The ONLY fee is the one-time donation of $50 to Circle ($25 is tax deductible). More details are available on the Circle Website - <http://www.camploisecircle.org/licenseplate.html>.

If you do not have access to the Internet or have any other questions, feel free to call me and I can answer your questions and/or send you the form through the mail. Thanks! Neil Berlin: 410- 363-3877

Songbook

When I think of camp, one of the first things that comes to my mind is a campfire. The smell of the fire, the taste of the s'mores, the sound of the guitars and the singers! Well, now everyone can have a little of that campfire with them with the Camp Louise Circle Campfire Songbook. Lyrics and guitar chords are included in this small, compact songbook that is the perfect size to throw in your guitar case or on your book shelf! If you would like to buy one, please contact Rachel Sanderoff at sanderoff@camploisecircle.org.
